

New role for Ruth

Bridgnorth woman Ruth Burley (pictured), who has 27 years experience in the financial services industry and has been with an IFA practice in the town, has joined Regents Court Financial as an independent financial adviser.

Her previous experience includes senior branch manager with Portman Building Society and she has also worked at Alliance & Leicester, Prudential, West Bromwich and Nat West.

Ruth lives in Bridgnorth with her husband Andrew, and her son, Henry.